Pupil's Handbook

Assalamu Alaykum Wa Rahmatullahi Wa Barakatuhu

IN THE NAME OF ALLAH Subhanahu Wa Ta'alaah
THE MOST BENEFICENT THE MOST MERCIFUL

Through the infinite mercy of the Almighty Subhanahu Wa Ta'alaah, Islam attaches great importance to education.

The Prophet Muhammad Sallallahu Alayhi Wasallam asked the ALMIGHTY O' My Lord!
Advance me in Knowledge. (Holy Qur'an 20: 114)

Allah Ta'aalah has made the seeking of knowledge obligatory upon every Muslim. Thus for a Muslim there is no distinction between religious and secular education. Leicester Community Academy seeks to develop the whole personality of pupils with Islam as the main focus of their lives. We aim to ensure that you enjoy your life at school and develop a love of learning and a strong desire to continue your education as a life long experience.

Insha Allah we aim to provide a balanced and broad level of education to meet the spiritual, moral, mental, physical and social needs of the young people.

We pray that we can work together, firstly on instilling love for Allah and Rasulallah Sallallahu Alayhi Wasallam through the teaching of the Qur’an and Sunnah. We pray that by being at the school, you can develop good character, which can benefit society in general Insha Allah. Thereafter, we can focus on learning.

Mission Statement

Leicester Community Academy aims to:

- Offer a relaxed and friendly environment.
- Provide a broad and balanced study of all areas of the National Curriculum.
- Constantly strive to achieve high standards in all avenues of learning.
- Uphold the 'moral and manners' of the Prophet Sallallahu Alayhi Wasallam by providing teaching through self respect, respect for parents, elders and others, through the development of personal responsibility.
- Provide weekly assemblies - incorporating 'citizenship' through the teachings of the Qur'aan and Sunnah.

- Impart knowledge to the pupils for the pleasure of Allah Ta'aalah.
- Have a positive relationship between the school and the parents.

The school will:

- Maintain a high standard of education, keeping in line with national government requirements, within a balanced curriculum.
- Encourage the child to do best at all times.
- Care for each child's safety and well-being.
- Provide a safe, secure and happy environment, where children are well cared for, treated fairly and where teaching is good.
- Encourage children to take care of school property, their surroundings and others around them.
- Act as role models for your child in punctuality, being prepared for lessons and relationships with other members of the school community.

- Encourage and motivate your child to do the very best they can.
- Keep you informed about your child’s progress, homework, and about general school matters.
- Be open and welcoming and offer opportunities for you to become involved in school life.
- Let the parents know about any concerns or problems that affect their child’s work or behaviour.
- Endeavour to meet the requirements of children whatever their needs to achieve their full potential.
- Ensure that each classroom is a positive and stimulating learning environment.
- Set, mark and monitor class work & homework.

Together we will:

Value one another as partners with our children.

Listen to and support each other in our aim to provide the best education for our children.

Additional Information

Homework Timetable:

Each primary class has their own homework timetable, which your class teacher will inform you of.

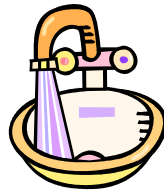

You or the class teacher should record your homework in the homework diary. Please make sure your parents check your diary each week, and sign it.

Most weeks, you should get a piece of numeracy and literacy homework, and spellings and timetables. Your teacher may give additional homework.

Reading:

Along with written homework, you must read everyday. Share your reading books with your parents or older brothers and sisters. Your teacher will give you reading books accompanied by a reading record, ask your parents to comment in the reading record. Books that are damaged or lost will have to be paid for.

Wudhu & Cleanliness:

You must come to school with wudhu, as you will recite Qur'an each morning, and you will read Salah during the day.

Being clean is very important in Islam therefore you must be clean at all times.

Absences:

If you are absent from school, you must bring a note the following day, explaining the reason of your absence.

Punctuality:

Pupils must arrive on time & must be picked up on time.

Late arrivals:

Please make sure you to come to school on time.

Detention:

Pupils who misbehave and break school rules / regulations will be given 1 hour detention.

Lunch:

You will need to bring a packed lunch everyday. Please have a healthy diet in your packed lunch which must include some fruit.

Not allowed:

- ❖ You cannot wear jewellery to school.

- ❖ You cannot carry mobile phone, ipads or Iphones with you in school. If you are caught with it, it will be confiscated. If you bring it to school and it is lost, stolen or damaged, the school will not be held responsible.

- ❖ You cannot bring expensive games to school, as the school cannot be responsible for loss or damage.

- ❖ You cannot eat chewing gum in school.

The Pupil Promise

As a pupil at Leicester Community Academy, I will try my best in everything I do and respect and care for everyone in my school.
I will try to:

- Support the Islamic values of our school.
- Be polite, helpful and considerate to others and keep the Golden Rules.
- Tell a grown-up at school if I have a problem or I am worried about anything.
- Try to think for myself and take responsibility for my actions.
- Behave sensibly so as to keep us all happy and safe.
